

A Chorus Celebrating Women (ACC♀)	$1,333	For ongoing operational support of A Chorus Celebrating Women (ACC♀).
Allentown Music Festivals, Inc.	$1,318	For ongoing operational support of Allentown Music Festivals, Inc.
Anita Shapolsky Art Foundation (ASAF)	$1,087	Flutes on Parade, a multiple-flute program for all ages, will include performance, lecture and a hands-on workshop presented by two professional musicians.
Art Across the River Festival	$1,711	Art Across the River is a venue created to support art in our region. The bridge across the Delaware River provides a grand panorama for exhibiting art. Musicians play music all day, including light jazz, big band, opera, and more to compliment the art exhibit.
Arts Community of Easton	$977	For ongoing operational support of the Arts Community of Easton.
Bach and Handel Chorale, Inc.	$1,883	For ongoing operational support of the Bach and Handel Chorale, Inc.
Bethlehem Fine Arts Commission	$1,109	"Friday Evenings in the Sculpture Garden" and a new series, "Sunday Afternoons in the Rotunda," are performing arts series presented by the Bethlehem Fine Arts Commission, the first taking place in June and July, outdoors in the Sculpture Garden next to City Hall, and the second in October, inside the City Hall Rotunda. Both series, free to the public, will promote the enjoyment of quality arts within the city and will help to support local and regional artists.
Boys & Girls Club of Allentown	$1,579	BGCA's FAME (Fun with Acting and Musical Expression) program is a multi-faceted, performing arts education program designed to foster self-express, build confidence, and enhance the self-esteem of our inner-city youth. During the 2007-2008 school year FAME will be offered at our Turner Street Clubhouse and will include instruction in drama, vocal music, various musical instruments and dance.
Boys & Girls Club of Easton	$1,711	The ImageMakers project will establish and arts, photography and sculpture, multidisciplinary program for young people which will promote self-expression and communication, and produce arts exhibits and materials for the community. The program will be open to all youth ages 12 to 19 years, base at the Boys & Girls Club of Easton on Easton's Southside and the Easton Teen Center in the West Ward.
Camerata Singers	$1,630	For ongoing operational support of the Camerata Singers.
Cedar Crest College Performing Arts	$1,183	Libana, a women's world music ensemble base in Massachusetts, will come to Cedar Crest College for a two-day event that includes a performance followed by a workshop, both of which will be open to the public. This will be the Lehigh Valley's premiere performance by this internationally renowned ensemble.
Chamber Music Society of Bethlehem	$2,282	For ongoing operational support of the Chamber Music Society of Bethlehem.
Community Music School	$483	Student Monster Concert that will highlight out talented youth, bring visibility to CMS, feature the diversity of the school, including music discipline, gender, age, and ethnicity.
Emmaus Arts Commission	$618	The Emmaus Arts Commission is hosting its 3rd Annual Student Horror Film Festival. Students are required to create, shoot, edit, and deliver a less than 6-minute film based on supplied content outlines.
Godfrey Daniels	$5,040	For ongoing operational support of Godfrey Daniels.
Heather Sincavage	$1,711	A mixed media art installation of a resin-cast tree using its universal symbolism of female, this exhibit will serve to raise awareness about domestic violence.
Hispanic American League of Artists	$5,316	For ongoing operational support of the Hispanic American League of Artists.
I.E.M. (It Expresses Me) Productions	$1,410	The project is a Writing Clinic for Aspiring Young Playwrights. This project will offer positive and creative opportunities for youth to express themselves.
Illick's Mill Partnership	$1,692	RiverFusion is a 2-day family friendly, alcohol-free festival celebrating the art and music of our youth, and the natural resources of the Lehigh Valley.
Lehigh County Historical Society	$1,636	The Lehigh County Historical Society seeks to support several public programs utilizing the dramatic method of living history performance.
Lehigh University Indian Students Association	$1,009	Diwali is a student organized cultural show that gives 700+ people a sample of South Asian culture, dance, music, art, and drama.
Lehigh Valley Chorus	$1,655	The activity is the Lehigh Valley A Cappella Classic, in which the Lehigh Valley Chorus (LVC) will perform, along with guest quartets, in a show. The show will also promote a cappella music to high school students through pre-show activities, including auditions and a workshop/coaching session, and culminate in a performance showcase during the Lehigh Valley A Capella Classic.

Lehigh Valley Storytelling Guild	$1,805	The Lehigh Valley Storytelling Guild is seeking funds for its 5th Annual Lehigh Valley Story Festival. We plan to extend its ability to reach diverse populations within the Lehigh Valley, and beyond, expanding to a ten-day festival at different locations throughout Northampton and Lehigh Counties. This festival will include: national, regional, and local tellers; storytelling performances for the public; an educators/librarians workshop; free performances at schools and libraries and workshops of various kinds.
Lehigh Valley Writers Academy	$1,504	Project encompasses the production of a regional bi-annual publication titled Lehigh Valley Literary Review (LVLR), and maintaining an internet website. The LVLR provides a forum for worthy literary voices, regardless of style, and it promotes creative discussion by publishing distinctive essays, fiction, book reviews and poetry, and we are the only Lehigh Valley literary publication.
Leslie Heffron	$1,410	Snowblast Winter Festival, now in its second year, is a two-day celebration of winter! All cultural and recreational events, taking place both indoors and out, will bring the community out of hibernation to enjoy the splendors of winter with music, art, literature, and non-competitive sporting events.
Lydia Panas	$818	I will display eleven different phrases/statements on eleven bus shelter panels throughout Lehigh and Northampton Counties. They will be presented as black text on a white background, with no image.
Macungie Institute - A Community Center	$562	All musical programs are held in the Auditorium of the Macungie Institute - A Community Center, 510 E. Main Street, Macungie, PA for the purpose of bringing quality entertainment/cultural experiences to audiences of all ages. We serve all residents of the Lehigh Valley and beyond.
Mary Wright	$1,436	Mary Wright and Cora Hook have created a performances piece celebrating the breadth and depth of the mid-lives of women entitled "A Couple of Cronies." During March 2008, as a celebration of women's history month they will do three performances for community based groups in the Lehigh Valley. These performances will be accompanied by talk-backs and/or workshops for audience members. Special attention will be given to engaging groups of women who do not usually attend arts events.
Maryann Kearns	$1,673	"Celebrate Community - Honor Diversity" is the theme for "StepFest '08." The event will feature local talent of all ages blending rhythmic dance styles from around the world. Dance teachers from various cultures will work with SouthSide students to teach them multicultural collaborative routines to perform at StepFest '08.
Mock Turtle Marionette Theater	$1,767	Mock Turtle seeks funding to support programming of its 2007-2008 Saturday's Child Family Series.
Moravian College Music Institute	$3,052	For ongoing operational support of Moravian College Music Institute.
Muhlenberg College - Department of Theatre & Dance	$5,053	For ongoing operational support of Muhlenberg College - Department of Theatre & Dance.
Muhlenberg College - Piano Series	$1,673	The Muhlenberg College Piano Series, now in its 24th year, has played a significant role in providing out Lehigh Valley community with astonishing performances by world-class artists. It is the only piano series of this quality in the Valley. The series presents four classical piano concerts each academic year. Concerts include international performers as well as "rising stars" identified by Muhlenberg College's pianist-in-residence, Annie Pettit.
New Beginning Here and Now Performing Arts Center, Inc.	$1,316	The Tribute Show is an artistic vehicle (music, dancing, acting) highlighting performances from the past (40s, 50s, 60s, 70s) and is a temporary escape (for all ages) from the often harsh messages and influences of today's popular music. It promotes exchange and interaction between parents/caretakers and children bridging generational gaps often experienced.
Pen Argyl Athletic & Park Association	$903	From June to August, Pen Argyl Athletic and Park Association presents free outdoor concerts in the beautiful setting of Weona Park's Band Shell. These concerts provide an opportunity for diverse genres of music to be made available to all residents of the Slate Belt.
Pioneer Band of Allentown, Inc.	$968	The Pioneer Band provides a Children's Concert Series to communities an schools in the Lehigh Valley area. These programs promote the importance of music education and help to promote the school music programs as well as provide an opportunity to see that musical education and performance can continue beyond the school years.
Recordante Recorder Choir	$876	The project will contribute to an enhanced/better quality of life of under-served nursing home residents through music and increased interaction between those individuals and the general public.
Repertory Dance Theatre	$7,496	For ongoing operational support of Repertory Dance Theatre.
Satori	$3,883	For ongoing operational support of Satori.
SouthSide Film Institute	$1,718	For ongoing operational support of the SouthSide Film Institute.
Spring Garden Children's Center	$1,302	For ongoing operational support of Spring Garden Children's Center.
Theatre Outlet, Inc.	$1,354	A production of 'The Boys Next Door', by Tom Griffin, explores a largely hidden handicapped population that is none-the-less an integral part of our community.