EXHIBITIONS

ALLENTOWN ART MUSEUM 610.432.4333 | 31 N 5TH ST., ALLENTOWN | WED, FRI, SAT 11AM-4PM | THU 11AM-8PM SUN 12-4PM

1/28-4/28: Women of Vision: On Assignment with National Geographic Photographers | From the savannahs of Botswana to the war-torn streets of Libya and Afghanistan; from the beaches of the Jersey Shore to the Mongolian steppe and the rainforests of New Guinea, these 11 women have traveled the world as explorers, capturing compelling stories of our planet and its people.

THRU 2/4: Revolutionizing Design: Progressive Home Decorating at the Turn of the Century | Textiles and furnishings by late 19TH century European and American design reformers who laid the foundation for modern design.

THRU 3/18: New Geography | Pilot and photographer Marilyn Bridges has taken to the skies to capture riveting landscapes below. From her initial fascination with photographing ancient earthworks, she has gone on to explore the markings that humans leave on the land today.

THRU 04/01: Soaring and Bounding | This beautiful selection of color woodcuts by British artists such as John Edgar Platt, William Giles, and Allen Seaby, demonstrates the influence of Japanese aesthetics and techniques on Western art of the 1920s and 1930s.

THRU 5/1/19: The Room Chapel | A recreation of Stephen Antonakos' installation originally built in 1996, The Room Chapel will offer space for contemplation, a refuge created through modern materials. It is an enclosed space featuring one of the artist's earliest panels fitted with neon behind it, giving off a sublime glow.
