

Champions of Inclusion

Presented by Lehigh Valley Arts Council | In Partnership with PBS39

Lehigh Valley Arts Council and PBS39 are pleased to announce Champions of Inclusion, a documentary highlighting the state of cultural access in the region and the champions who have provided hope and progress in changing people's lives.

“ Meet the mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters, the activists and the advocates who have nurtured a culture of accessibility and belonging in the Lehigh Valley.

Elise Schaffer, Arts & Access Always Program Administrator

Champions of Inclusion will air exclusively on PBS39 on Tuesday, September 15th at 8pm EST. The documentary premiere will also be live-streamed online at wlv.org. Tune in to learn and to celebrate inclusion, accessibility, and the disability community in the Lehigh Valley! Questions should be directed to access@lvartscouncil.org. For more information, please visit lvartscouncil.org/champions-of-inclusion/.

